

GIVING THANKS & PRAISE

This Reading Plan Booklet was made possible with the contributions, support, and faithful prayers of many including:

- Dr. Stephen Witmer, Reading plan template
- Angela Merzib, Design and production coordination
- Sara Hansen, Content development and research
- Lynn Hookway, Proofreading
- Melody Daze, Editorial oversight
- Mountain View Printing, Print production

Various sources have been useful in the design of this booklet such as:

- Nelson's New Illustrated Bible Dictionary, copyright 1995, 1986 by Thomas Nelson Publishers
- Alone with God, A Manual of Biblical Meditation, Campbell McAlpine, copyright 1981
- Blue Letter Bible, blueletterbible.org

Finally, and most importantly, this Reading Plan Booklet has been inspired by and produced for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, to whom belongs all the glory, honour, and power.

"But let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth. For in these I delight," says the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:24

INVITE from PASTOR GLEN

It is with great anticipation that I invite you to join me on a two-year journey through the Scriptures. We have entitled this booklet 'From Strength to Strength,' a phrase from Psalm 84 that describes the journey of pilgrims in ancient Israel as they travelled the dusty roads to worship at the house of God.

As believers today, we too are on a pilgrimage to God's house. We will find strength for our journey as we draw near to the Lord through His Word and take time to encourage one another along the way.

This booklet is designed to help each of us develop a deeper, more disciplined walk with the Lord Jesus Christ through a daily, consistent study of God's Word.

I fully expect the Lord will speak to each of us as we journey, so consider using a Bible where you can highlight verses and write notes in the margins. As you are faithful to read, reflect, pray, and journal, your Bible will become a constant companion over the next two years and a lasting reminder of what God has spoken to your heart.

May the Lord realign us, correct us, and grow us so that when we complete this Reading Plan we will have well-worn Bibles and transformed lives, for God's glory!

Pastor Glen Nudd

KEYS & PROMPTS

Our journey from strength to strength begins in Genesis and goes to Revelation. As well, we will read through Psalms and Proverbs four times. The plan also has a couple of special features as described below.

Catch Up Day: You will find some days along the way have been reserved for catching up on past reading, or even doing a little deeper study on a passage that has caught your attention or taking time to do some journaling.

Share the Word Day: As we read through the Word verse by verse the idea is to consider what the Lord has been speaking to you about and then to share what has touched your heart with a brother or sister. Consider doing so on the Share the Word Days by sending a card, an email or even a quick text.

Watch for the symbols below to make the most of these features.

GENESIS

The word Genesis means the origin, source, creation, or coming into being of something. This book is about beginnings.

PSALMS

This book is a collection of prayers, poems, and hymns that focus the worshiper's thoughts on God in praise and adoration.

“ The first verse and the rest of the book of Genesis sets our worldview as Christians. —Pastor Glen Nudd

EXODUS

Exodus means to exit or depart. This is the account of how God delivered His people out of Egypt in order to make them His own special nation.

LEVITICUS

The theme of this book is a call to holiness, to be set apart, to be a light on the hill. It has an important message for all believers.

“ There may be some sins of which a man cannot speak, but there is no sin which the blood of Christ cannot wash away. —Charles Spurgeon

DEEPER STUDY TIP

Pick a verse or passage that stands out in your regular reading and read it over slowly and multiple times; look at it in other versions of the Bible and in one sentence write down what the Holy Spirit has spoken to your heart.

“ For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.
—The Apostle Paul (Romans 15:4)

1 & 2 KINGS

God tells Israel that He will establish the throne forever if they follow His statutes. In 1 and 2 Kings we are shown that Israel forsakes the true and living God, leading to rebellion, division, and exile.

God's Word is the only reliable guideline for living. Following your heart, without the leading of His Word and His Spirit, will lead you to His judgment.

Incline my heart to Your testimonies, and not to covetousness.

Psalm 119:36

ISAIAH

Sometimes described as a mini-Bible, Isaiah has 66 chapters and two parts just like the Old Testament and New Testament. In the first part, Isaiah the Prophet condemns Israel's sin and warns of God's judgment. The second part is about deliverance and the coming of Christ as our Redeemer.

JEREMIAH

A young man when God enlists him, Jeremiah will suffer and be rejected as he calls God's people to repent and humble themselves. Even though Israel refuses to listen to the prophet, we see that God is always faithful.

“If you are ignorant of God's Word, you will always be ignorant of God's will.”

LAMENTATIONS

In this book we read the heart-wrenching response to the devastation and destruction of Jerusalem due to Israel's unrepentant rebellion.

EZEKIEL

Speaking to an unrepentant Israel, the prophet Ezekiel pronounces God's judgment, while pointing toward the hope of restoration and the Millennial Kingdom.

The erosion of character usually begins with neglect: we stop reading the Word, or worshiping with God's people, or taking time to meditate and pray.

1, 2, & 3 JOHN

The themes of John's three letters are love, truth, and light and a call to faithfulness.

JUDE

Jude exhorts the church to stand strong and remain true to the Word of God.

REVELATION

The last book of the Bible focuses on the Revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ and helps us to know how to respond to Him.

“Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven. —Acts 1:11

LET us REMEMBER

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work. 2 Timothy 3:16-17

The Bible is the product of the power of God working through many individuals who gave their lives, figuratively and often literally, so future generations, like ourselves, would have the privilege of reading God's Word.

In total there are 66 books that make up the Bible, written by some 40 people, starting with what Moses wrote down some 3,300 years ago and ending with the Book of Revelation composed by the Apostle John approximately 1,900 years ago. These books have been preserved for us, translated into many different languages, and passed down from generation to generation. The Bible is the most published and best-selling book of all time.

As we hold the Word of God in our hands and endeavor to read it daily, may we remember those who have suffered and paid the ultimate price that we might have this enormous privilege. Above all, may we remember Jesus who said, "In the volume of the book it is written of Me." Hebrews 10:7
